

National Nomination Honorary Life Membership

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

Nominations for all Australian Red Cross awards are confidential and nomination does not guarantee the award will be approved. Please do not advise the person you are nominating them. You may collaborate with others to complete this nomination.

I nominate the undermentioned person whose service to Australian Red Cross in my opinion qualifies them for this award.

Nominator (Name/Division):

Signed:

NOMINEE: PERSONAL DETAILS

Title:

 Mr Mrs Ms Miss Dr Other

Post Nominal:

Family Name:

Given Name:

Address:

Suburb:

State:

Postcode:

Contact No:

Email:

Period of Australian Red Cross Service:

Australian Red Cross Member category (if applicable):

Positions/Offices Held (give dates):

Level of Service:

 International (IFRC, ICRC) National State/Territory (Divisional) Local (community, Branch/Unit)

Previous Australian Red Cross Awards:

Divisional Endorsement:

Date:

Divisional Chair (signature):

NOMINATION CRITERIA

This section is for nominators to share specific, detailed information with the members of the Awards Committee to show how the person they are nominating meets the criteria for this award.

Points to note:

- This section must be completed. Incomplete nomination forms will not be accepted.
- This section is read only by members of the Awards Committee(s) and will not be made public.
- Only Australian Red Cross service is relevant, do not include other activities undertaken by this person.
- This award is focused on acknowledging the highest quality of service by a member of Australian Red Cross.

Nomination Criteria

1. Please give evidence that this person served Australian Red Cross or the Red Cross Red Crescent movement for at least ten (10) years.

2. Please give evidence of how this person demonstrates devotion to the Seven Fundamental Principles. It is helpful to have a specific story or example which shows how this person 'lives and breathes' the Principles and reflects the Principles in their everyday life or actions.

3. Please give evidence of selfless humanitarian service to others by this person. It is helpful to have one or two specific stories or examples of "hands on" actions or initiatives by this person to care for others in need.

4. Please give evidence that this person has served in an exceptional fashion in their leadership role. 2 – 3 specific stories would be helpful. Serving in an ‘exceptional fashion’ is more than just roles taken on or length of time served. It is going above and beyond in your duties or in your care of others.

You may attach additional pages, information or evidence to support this nomination. Please list any attachments below to ensure there is a complete record of this nomination.

- No attachments (all information is recorded on this form).
- Attachments have been included. List titles of attachment(s) and number of pages below.

DRAFT CITATION

This section will be read out publicly at the presentation of the award and printed and handed to the awardee. It may also be shared online or in other media. It is not the main source of information for deciding whether or not the person receives the award, but it is the record of why they received the award.

Points to note:

- The draft citation is not to exceed 300 words (unless exceptional circumstances).
- The citation will be read out when the award is presented, so it should be written formally and to a high standard.
- The citation should detail some of the reasons for the award and the way the person has contributed to Australian Red Cross.
- As only Australian Red Cross service is relevant, do not include other activities undertaken by this person.
- Avoid references to “I” (e.g. I have seen or I believe), the citation should be written in the 3rd person (e.g. Barbara has assisted with the ...). Do not include phrases such as “I recommend he be awarded...” or similar.